"Degree-diploma programs offer a competitive edge... The combination of hands-on training and critical thinking skills is expected to be the way of the future."
Globe and Mail

"Students who attend the University of Guelph-Humber graduate with more than just a degree and a diploma - they leave us with professional contacts and well-rounded experiences. They are not just prepared for careers; they are prepared for life."
John Walsh
Vice-Provost

Innovation

The University of Guelph-Humber provides an exciting and innovative opportunity for students attending university in Canada. The facility, created with more than $30 million, is custom-made for the unique program offerings at the University. From the design of the specialized labs and study spaces to the creation of our programs and curriculum – the University of Guelph-Humber reflects changing trends in higher education by integrating the strengths of a traditional university education with the critical skills development and training offered at a college.

In addition to the unique learning and study spaces, the University of Guelph-Humber building boasts a stunning four-storey atrium complete with a living plant wall which serves as a bio-filter purifying the air circulated throughout the building.

"I am pleased to see these two great institutions working together to provide students with a new option in higher education."

Chuck Ealey
Regional Manager,
Investors Group

"Small class sizes mean students and faculty have a chance to learn from one another."

Academic Advantage

Student Success

The University of Guelph-Humber ranks among the top universities in Canada in retaining students from first to second year – an important measure of students' progress and their satisfaction with their programs.

The University of Guelph-Humber is a collaboration between two institutions - the University of Guelph and Humber College Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning (Humber). Students take all of their courses at the University of Guelph-Humber building in Toronto, receiving an honours degree and a college diploma after four years of full-time study. All of the courses at the University were designed to meet the specific learning outcomes of this initiative by integrating hands-on experiences throughout the curriculum. Each course offered at the University of Guelph-Humber is approved and taught at the university level.

Our students see the value in gaining both a theoretical and professional education. They have high academic standards and a strong commitment to the field of study they have chosen to pursue. The education students receive from the University of Guelph-Humber positions them for success in employment, graduate studies, and professional schools.

University of Guelph-Humber faculty come from both the University of Guelph and Humber; they include those who have broken new ground in research and those who are connected with industry partners and professionals outside the classroom. Our faculty are known for their expertise in the subjects they teach and for valuing student-centered learning. In fact, each course and program was designed by our award-winning faculty in consultation with industry leaders, to meet emerging workforce demands. Class sizes at the university are small, providing students with direct and easy access to the faculty who enrich their university experience.

Dr. Ron Stansfield Professor, Justice Studies

"I furthered my education while pursuing my career in the justice field. Doing so allowed me to research and apply what I was learning to my work. I began teaching at Humber while finishing my Ph.D. and eventually became a professor at the University of Guelph. I am thrilled to be a part of the University of Guelph-Humber initiative – I believe that the combination of theory and hands-on training is crucial, and I value the interaction I am able to have with my students."

Experience & Opportunity

University of Guelph-Humber students will complete industry-linked projects and learn the applied skills required for employment and post-graduate studies in their chosen field. All the programs provide unique learning opportunities that allow students to develop and practice their skills with state-of-the-art equipment and resources.

In addition to in-class learning, every program includes an opportunity for students to learn in the workplace so they can build on the knowledge they acquired in the classroom. As both University of Guelph and Humber alumni, our graduates are experiencing tremendous success in obtaining employment through previous internships and placements, and gaining admission to graduate, law, and other professional schools.

"Producing a news broadcast was stressful, but fun. I am glad I had the opportunity to see what it would be like before I started my internship."

Tara Grozier
Media Studies Graduate 2006

"I am gaining valuable experience through my placements in various early childhood settings."

*Course recommendations offer suggestions for students by identifying subjects that relate to their chosen field of study. Students will find recommended courses provide helpful preparation for study at the University of Guelph-Humber. Course recommendations will not be used as a deciding factor in the admission process.

Student Profiles

The Student Profile and Mature and Transfer Student Profile provide students with an opportunity to tell the Admissions Committee about activities applicants have been involved in that have contributed to their personal development, such as work experience, volunteering, and community involvement. Factors that may have negatively affected their academic performance, such as illness or personal issues, will also be considered. The Student Profile and Mature and Transfer Student Profile will be considered carefully when making admission decisions and is the basis for consideration for the Student Profile Scholarship. The profiles should be completed electronically and will be available on-line in November.

Admission Averages

Students with admission averages at or above 75% will be considered for admission. Applicants with admission averages of 70% – 74.9% must submit a Student Profile to be considered for admission. We encourage all students to complete a Student Profile or a Mature and Transfer Student Profile.

Admission to the Media Studies Program

As part of the admission process to the Media Studies program at the University of Guelph-Humber, applicants are expected to complete the Program Orientation. The Program Orientation, held on February 9-10, consists of an interview, a portfolio and résumé review, and a writing exercise. While students will choose their specialization at the end of their first year in the program, students interested in Journalism or Public Relations should bring two pieces of non-fiction writing; each piece should not exceed one page in length. Students interested in Creative Photography should bring five photographic images. The Program Orientation will allow applicants to tour the University of Guelph-Humber campus, meet one-on-one with faculty, gain a deeper understanding of the Media Studies program, and present a portfolio of related work for review and discussion.

All applications for the Media Studies program must be submitted by February 1, 2008.

International Baccalaureate

Students applying with an International Baccalaureate (IB) diploma should present a minimum score of 24. Currently enrolled IB candidates should submit predicted IB final results. Students should include the specific subject requirements for the program to which they are applying among their higher and standard level subjects. Transfer credit may be given for higher-level courses with grades of five or better.

International Applicant

A student is considered an international applicant if they do not have citizenship or landed immigrant status in Canada and the majority of their education has occurred in a country other than Canada. Please visit our website for more detailed information about the application process, including application deadlines and submission of required documents.

English Proficiency

Applicants will be required to present evidence of English proficiency if their primary language is not English and they have had less than four years of full-time secondary school study in an English-language school system. Applicants required to provide evidence of English proficiency must do so by submitting one of the required scores outlined below.

Advanced Placement

Applicants who have completed Advanced Placement examinations with a minimum grade of four may be eligible to receive university credit to a maximum of two credits, subject to the discretion of the Admissions Committee.

Mature Applicant

An applicant may apply as a mature student if they are 21 years of age or older and have been away from full-time secondary school study for a minimum of two full years. To qualify for admission as a mature student, an applicant must present a secondary school transcript, and a Mature and Transfer Student Profile for admission consideration.

University/College Transfer Applicant

An applicant that has attended, or is currently enrolled in a post-secondary institution (college or university), is considered a transfer applicant and may apply for admission to the University of Guelph-Humber. Transfer applicants must have successfully completed their studies or be eligible to continue their studies at the last university or college they attended. They must submit transcripts from any secondary and post-secondary institution they have attended. Visit our website for more information in regard to the application process and transfer credit assessment.

"Knowledge, skills, and values were integral components in the creation of the innovative courses offered at the University of Guelph-Humber. The courses at the University reflect these values and demonstrate the academic rigor of a university education."

Fred Evers
3M Teaching Award Winner

"Balance is the key. While I worked hard to earn both a degree and a diploma in four years, I gained so much by getting involved in the school community."

Ameer Ali
Business Graduate 2007

Challenge

Students at the University of Guelph-Humber study a rigorous, integrated curriculum to complete the requirements of a university honours degree and a college diploma in four years. In addition to their studies, many students at the University of Guelph-Humber volunteer within the school or their home community, hold part-time jobs, and participate in social and extra-curricular activities. The combination of these experiences prepares our students to meet the challenging demands of today's competitive market.

Who Are Our Students?

76%

of our students join us directly from high school

24%

of our students join us after pursuing other ventures

Where Do They Live?

77%

of first year students live in off-campus accommodations or commute from home

23%

of first year students live in residence

"I lived off campus so I could be close to my family, but I always felt a part of the University of Guelph-Humber community."

Charmaine Jenkins
Family and Community
Social Services Graduate 2007

Our students come with a range of backgrounds and experiences. The majority of University of Guelph-Humber students join us directly from high school, but students who transfer from other colleges and universities make up a significant number of our population. Mature and international students also make a valuable contribution to our community.

At the University of Guelph-Humber, there are many ways for students to get involved and make new friends. Small class sizes and emphasis on group work make it easy for students to meet and interact with classmates. However, life doesn't stop at the classroom door.

Our commitment to students extends beyond labs and classrooms. The second floor of the University of Guelph-Humber building was designed for student interaction and includes a social lounge, group study spaces, and an internet café. There are also many clubs and activities that are available to enhance the university experience.

Whether students join a club or take a part-time job on campus, join us from high school or after other ventures, live on-campus or commute from home, they will certainly find a place where they belong at the University of Guelph-Humber.

"Every residence floor is like a small community that does everything together including eating, studying, sports and just hanging out. And you can't beat the convenience!"

Elena Safaniouk
Business Student

STAMP Leader*

Inside and outside the classroom, University of Guelph-Humber students are leading others—making a positive impact on their peers, future students, and the community at large. The programs at the University of Guelph-Humber are designed to equip students with the tools needed in the field, and to train students to become leaders in their chosen academic discipline. In a variety of innovative, program specific initiatives and workplace experiences, students develop their leadership potential by executing the unique skill set developed in the classroom setting.

Mentorship programs, fundraising campaigns, and a student initiated club dedicated to assisting local, national, and international charities were some of the first groups, activities, and organizations on campus and are growing in popularity and success every year.

University of Guelph-Humber students are positioned for leadership and life-long learning by acquiring the necessary skills for success in their academic and social pursuits.

"Staff and student leaders helped me feel connected to the University of Guelph-Humber community and achieve academic success in my first year."

Omar Costano
International Student

Support

The University of Guelph-Humber has a range of services to help students thrive academically and reach their potential. Support services include those that assist with growth and personal development, as well as those that help ensure students are able to achieve academic success. In addition, Career and Alumni Services assist students with their professional development by hosting workshops and providing resources for students looking to improve their career searching skills, gain work experience, and expand their portfolios.

Academic Support

All students have a Program Advisor to guide them through their academic endeavours. The Writing and Math Centres provide drop-in assistance for students looking to improve their skills and academic performance. Library Services offers assistance to students as they research and explore course material on-campus and through the Internet.
